2020 Junior Citizens Police Academy

The Junior Citizens Police Academy is an educational, informative and fun program, which allows young adults to meet police officers and learn more about their jobs.

The purpose of the academy is to increase interaction, understanding and communications between the Danville Police Department and the younger citizens of the community.

The Junior Citizens Police Academy gives younger citizens an opportunity to learn more about their Police Department with hands-on activities and up-close experiences.

WHEN and WHERE? The 2020 Junior Citizens Police Academy will be held from March 31st- April 21st 2020.

Classes will be held in the training room of the Danville Police Department at the Public Safety Building. They will be on Tuesday evenings from 6 pm to 9 pm. There will be four classes and graduation will take place on April 29th 2020.

In each class you will be interacting with police officers. We encourage you to ask questions and participate. The classes will be fun and enjoyable for everyone.

The Classes are Free But . . .

You must have few or no serious police contacts, live in or attend a school in Danville, have your parent's permission, and have your own transportation to and from class! This year we will be including high school students as well as 7th and 8th grade students.
