Presenter: John Woodard with the Salvation Army gave a brief history of the Salvation Army and the many functions of the Salvation Army in each community they serve. There are Girl Guards and the Adventure Team for boys and girls that are parallel to Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts. There are character building programs for adults. The Salvation Army has supportive services for Veteran Families. The Salvation Army is a church and functions as one with church services every Sunday. The Salvation Army has had a presence in Danville for over a hundred years.

Director's
Report

The Commission reviewed the complaint report for 3/22/16 – 4/18/16. Frank Williams moved to accept the report and was seconded by Bobbie McHone. Motion carried.

Sandra explained that she changed her mind about having a public meeting. She decided that we would reach more people by doing a survey regarding the police. After a discussion about the survey, Sandra distributed the survey to the members.

There is presently no date for the hearings for the cases that were given to the hearing officer.
