CITY OF DANVILLE AFFIRMATIVE ACTION REQUIREMENTS

SECTION 95.15

Dear Contractor/Vendor:

Pursuant to the Human Relations Ordinance, being Chapter 95 of the Code of Ordinances of Danville, Illinois, any business entity contracting to do business with the City of Danville in the total amount of Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00) or more must submit an Employer Certificate of Compliance Report Form (ECCR Form), as a written commitment to provide equal employment opportunity.

The completed form should be submitted to the address listed on page eight (8) of the form. Once the form has been approved, your firm will be issued a certificate of compliance which will include an EEO Certification Number. That number will identify your firm in the contract compliance monitoring system as eligible to conduct business with the City. The certificate of compliance shall be valid for one year. Therefore, prior to the expiration of that year, my office will send you a renewal form. To renew your certificate, you will be required to complete and submit the renewal form to my office.

Please be advised that your failure to properly complete, sign and notarize the ECCR Form will result in it being returned unprocessed. Also, it will result in a delay or denial of your eligibility to bid. If you currently have a valid certificate of compliance, you may submit a copy of it instead of completing and submitting the ECCR Form. However, if you are awarded the contract and you hire additional employees for the current project, you must complete and submit the enclosed Employee Utilization Form to my office.

Also, pursuant to the Human Relations Ordinance, you are required to have a sexual harassment policy as part of your company's policies. Enclosed are sexual harassment guidelines which provide the necessary elements applicable to a sexual harassment policy. If you have a company policy in existence, please review the guidelines against it to ensure that your policy contains all of the necessary elements as provided in the guidelines, paying particular attention to the internal complaint process. If you do not have a policy in existence, you may follow the guidelines in establishing your sexual harassment policy.

If your existing policy complies with the elements contained in the sexual harassment guidelines, please submit a copy along with your completed ECCR Form. If you need to establish a policy, the Ordinance provides that you have 60 days from the date you submit a bid to establish such policy. If you have questions concerning sexual harassment policies, you should consult with an attorney.

Your cooperation in this matter will be appreciated. Please call me at (217) 431-2280 if you have questions or need assistance in completing the enclosed form. Our regular office hours are 8:00 a.m. through 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday.

Sincerely,

CITY OF DANVILLE

SEXUAL HARASSMENT GUIDELINES

I. Purpose

Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 makes it an unlawful employment practice to discriminate against any individual with respect to terms and conditions of employment because of that person's race, color, religion, sex, national origin or handicap. Any conduct in the workplace that takes place because of a person's gender is sex discrimination prohibited by Title VII and the City of Danville's Human Relations Ordinance which makes similar provisions. Therefore, the company has implemented the following sexual harassment policies and procedures.

It is the policy of the company that all employees have the right to work in an environment free from all forms of discrimination and conduct which can be considered harassing, coercive or destructive, including sexual harassment.

The company's position is that sexual harassment is a form of misconduct that undermines the integrity of the employment relationship. No employee, either male or female, should be subject to unsolicited and unwelcomed sexual overtures or conduct, either verbal or physical. Sexual harassment does not refer to occasional compliments of a socially acceptable nature. It refers to behavior that is not welcome, that is personally offensive, that debilitates morale, and that, therefore, interferes with work effectiveness. Such behavior may result in disciplinary action up to and including dismissal.

II. Coverage - All employees shall be covered by this policy.

III. Management Responsibility

Sexual harassment, whether committed by supervisory or non-supervisory personnel, is specifically prohibited as unlawful and against stated company policy. In addition, management shall be responsible for taking action against acts of sexual harassment by non-supervisory personnel or others, regardless of whether the specific acts complained of were sanctioned or specifically forbidden and regardless of the manner in which the company becomes aware of the conduct.

IV. Policy Implementation

1. It is the responsibility of group, division, department and operations heads to make sure that their facility is in full compliance with this policy and associated legal guidelines.
2. Employees that have complaints should report such conduct to their supervisors, if this is not appropriate, employees are urged to seek the assistance of their company personnel or EEO representative.
3. It is the responsibility of the company's ranking personnel or EEO representative to: provide guidance, investigate charges of Impropriety; and recommend appropriate action. All claims must be thoroughly investigated. The manager of EEO contract compliance and counsel for EEO affairs will provide guidance and assistance in proper handling of any allegations.

V. Legal Definition and Guidelines

Illinois law defines sexual harassment as follows: sexual harassment means any unwelcome sexual advances or requests for sexual favors or any conduct of a sexual nature when (1) submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of an individual's employment, (2) submission to or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as the basis for employment decisions affecting such individual, or (3) such conduct has the purpose or the effect of substantially interfering with an individual's work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive working environment.

Sexual advances may be either verbal or physical.

A term or condition of employment may include, but not be limited to, hiring, promotion, training, work assignments, overtime assignments, or pay increases.

VI. Examples of Sexual Harassment

1. Quid pro quo harassment. A supervisor with authority to affect an employee's working conditions makes unwelcome sexual advances. Submission to the advances is an expressed or implied condition for receiving job benefits, or refusal to submit to the demands results in the loss of a job benefit or in discharge. For example, a supervisor says: "go out to dinner with me if you want that raise or if you want to keep your job".
2. Hostile environment. This is a relentless and continuing sexual conduct in the work place that interferes with an employee's work performance or that creates an intimidating, hostile, abusive or offensive work environment. Hostile environment harassment can also be found from any unfavorable working conditions directed only at one sex. Pervasive animosity or extreme rudeness directed only at women, for example, can be the basis for a hostile working environment claim.

The following are examples of this type of sexual harassment.

Photographs, Graffiti, Comments: Throughout the shipyard in which Lois worked as a welder, pictures of nude women in sexually suggestive or submissive poses were posted. The pictures consisted of plaques on walls, magazines and photographs torn from magazines and placed on walls or affixed to vendor advertising calendars. The calendars themselves also depicted nude or partially nude women. Some sexually offensive drawings and graffiti were on the walls. No pictures of nude or partially nude men were posted in the workplace. Coupled with the pictures were sexually demeaning comments and jokes made by male employees and supervisors to Lois (and other female employees) or in her presence.

Rude Treatment of Women: John felt women were a threat to his position of head of a military EEO office, so he constantly abused his three female subordinates. In addition to offering little guidance and refusing his staff access to needed documents and mail, he used expressions such as "okay babe" and "listen here woman" in reference to Virginia, an EEO Specialist under his supervision. He also would scream and threaten Virginia for leaving the office on occasion and once physically prevented her from leaving, while on another occasion blowing cigar smoke in her face. The two other subordinates were also subjected to shouting and insults, such as being called stupid. Furthermore, John complained to a manager that he had "dumb females working for him who couldn't read or write," and he once tried to stuff paper down the blouse of a female employee who was not in his department. John's abusive treatment of female workers was sexual harassment because it was not extended to male employees.

3. Sexual favoritism. A woman may be granted a promotion because she submits to unwelcome requests for sexual favors from a supervisor. Under those circumstances, both male and female workers can allege sexual harassment by showing that they were denied a chance at promotion because of the sexual harassment directed toward that one female employee.
4. Harassment by non-employees. Employers can be liable for the sexual harassment of employees by customers or other third parties if the employer has some degree of control to stop the improper behavior.

For example, an employer who requires female employees to dress in revealing uniforms which cause offensive comments and physical conduct to be directed at the female employees by members of the public and after notification of such comments and conduct continues to require the females to wear the uniforms will be liable for sexual harassment.

VII. Procedure for Internal Complaint.

A. Employee

1. Complaints of sexual harassment should be brought to the attention of the (1) immediate supervisor, (2) department head, (3) EEO officer (person responsible for implementing and maintaining this policy), (4) manager, personnel department (if separate from EEO officer).
2. If the alleged harasser is the employee's supervisor or employed in one of the above listed offices, the employee should feel free to bypass the supervisor or office and take the complaint to one of the other offices listed, or through the Danville Human Relations Department or the Illinois Department of Human Rights as provided in Section VIII of this policy.

B. Company

1. The EEO Officer shall be notified of any complaint.
2. After notification of the employee's complaint, a confidential investigation will be initiated to gather all facts about the complaint.
3. After the investigation has been completed, a determination will be made by appropriate management regarding the resolution of the complaint.
4. If warranted, disciplinary action will be taken in accordance with the following penalties.
 - (a) written reprimand;
 - (b) an order to stay away from the complainant;
 - (c) either the complainant employee or the employee who committed the harassment may be transferred to a different department, so long as it does not substantially change such employee's duties, pay or benefits; or
 - (d) termination.

Such penalties may be imposed individually or in combination.

VIII. Complaint Procedure through Danville Human Relations Department, Illinois Department of Human Rights and Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC).

A. Employee

1. An employee may choose to raise the complaint through one of the following agencies: Danville Human Relations Department, the Illinois Department of Human Rights or the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC).
2. Complaints should be brought to:
 - (a) Sandra R. Houston, Director
Human Relations Department
City of Danville
17 West Main Street
Danville, IL 61832
(217) 431-2280
 - (b) Illinois Department of Human Rights – (217) 785-5100
 - (c) Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC)
(312) 353-8985

B. Agency

1. Once a complaint is filed, the agency will commence an investigation to determine whether sexual harassment has occurred.
2. Upon investigation, a determination will be made as to whether a complaint should continue forward. If it is determined that a complaint should proceed forward, it will proceed through conciliation and, if necessary, a public hearing.

IX. Non-Retaliation.

This policy also prohibits retaliation against any employees who bring sexual harassment charges or assist in investigating charges. Any employee bringing a sexual harassment complaint or assisting in the investigation of such a complaint will not be adversely affected in terms and conditions of employment, nor discriminated against or discharged because of the complain
