Presenter:

Ashton Greer, Program Coordinator with Faith in Action gave a very informative talk on what Faith in Action does. They provide transportation, routine household and yard chores, friendly visits & luncheons, health screening and exercise classes. Faith in Action is much more broad ranged than is commonly known. Some services require a contribution either financially or through volunteer services with Faith in Action.

Director's
Report

The Commission reviewed the complaint report for 4/19/16 – 5/16/16. Mary Thompson moved to accept the report and was seconded by Bobbie McHone. Motion carried.

We talked about the Community Survey we each filled out. There was one hearing on the two cases we referred to the Hearing Officer. The second hearing should be next week

Committee
Reports:

MLK Committee

Community Day, 2nd Sunday in July. Program is ready, Linda Williams will be singing. City workers will bring the tent, bouncy house & balloons set up and tear down.

Hispanic/Latino Advisory Committee

Had their fundraiser with El Toro. Turn- out was a little disappointing but there are going to be two more.
